Victorian Review

Hamilton Prize

Victorian Review invites submissions for the annual Hamilton Prize for the best graduate student essay in the field of Victorian studies.

Essays should be 20-25 pages in length and must not have been previously published. The winner will receive an award of $250 CAN and publication of the essay in the Spring issue of Victorian Review. The journal will also publish the names and essay titles of up to two runners-up in the Spring issue. The deadline for submissions is June 30, 2017.

The winning essay will be selected according to the following criteria:

- Contribution to Victorian studies;
- 2. Quality and originality; and
- 3. Style and clarity.

The award will be judged by a team of the journal's Advisory Board members.
